

The goal of the summer stories to expose your child to words they will encounter in first grade and keep him/her thinking about letters, sounds, and blending words. Please work on reading words from the word lists first. When the word lists are done, try reading one or two sentences a day from the stories until they are complete.

Decodable Words

These are words your child can sound out.

I	am

would	you

Summer is Here!

I am so happy summer is here! It is hot. I want to swim every day. I will run fast to the big tree and climb. I can ride my bike here and there.

Come with me. We could do these things together. We should have a happy summer.

Would you play with me?
